

Party Guide for Parents

When You Are Out of Town

Inform your teens of their responsibilities and the consequences of their actions. Explain to your teens your family policy and rules about “no parties” while you are absent.

- Rule 1: No parties
- Rule 2: No friends allowed overnight.
- Rule 3: Teen’s curfew while you are out of town is _____ PM.
- Rule 4: No change of plans without first contacting parents and getting permission.
- Rule 5: _____
- Rule 6: _____
- Rule 7: _____
- _____ Teen Initials _____ Parent Initials

Have a responsible adult live in your home during your absence or have your teenager stay with a responsible adult.

- _____ Teen Initials _____ Parent Initials

Inform your neighbors of your absence. Request they contact you or the police if a party occurs. Cooperation and support is a productive way to keep your teen safe.

- Neighbor: _____
- Neighbor: _____
- Neighbor: _____
- Neighbor: _____
- Neighbor: _____
- _____ Teen Initials _____ Parent Initials

Contact local police and advise them:

- Your departure and return times.
- Your policy of “no parties” while you are out of town.
- Give police verbal and written permission to enter your home without cause if more than 2 cars are in your driveway beyond what should normally be there during your absence.
- Give police your contact information and request they contact you in case of a party at your home.
- _____ Teen Initials _____ Parent Initials

If a party is held, find out who attended and contact his/her parents as soon as possible.

- _____ Teen Initials _____ Parent Initials